4 out of 5 stars

Australia, VIC Creator: Self Help Addiction Resource Centre (SHARC) Last reviewed: 28/03/2019

Review: Service that is focused on promoting self help approaches to severe alcohol and drug related issues. Provides recovery opportunities for people who use drugs, families and communities affected by dependence issues or comorbidity. Programs include residential treatment, supported accommodation, family support, and access to the drug service users' association. The programs require a long-term commitment by consumers to want to their change lifestyle patterns and behaviours to achieve sobriety. People accessing this suite of services include those who are homeless or at risk of homelessness. Peer support and mentoring are key components of the success of the services. NOTE: This is a review of the site, not any of the services offered by SHARC.
