Australia, NSW Creator: ACON Alcohol and other Drugs Program Last reviewed:

20/02/2018

Review: An informative go-to site for people who use drugs, particularly those who include ice or other amphetamines in their mix. There are lots of practical harm reduction and prevention tips, including a couple of sections which are of particular interest to people who relate to GLBTIQ. There is realistic safe partying, safe injecting and safer sex information to aid in the prevention of overdoses and the transmission of infectious diseases.
